

Schedule: Creating diverse coalitions for equality in neoliberal times: locating the emancipatory city

9:00 - 9:30	Registration and coffee
9:30 - 10:00	Welcome, housekeeping and opening of the Exhibition by SUCRAN
10:00 - 11:20	Presentation session 1: Disability, Research and the City Each presentation will last 15 mins and will be followed by 5 mins for questions. 10:00 to 10:15: Presentation 1: Researching Disabled Lives in the Age of Austerity: Engaging with the 4 Rs – Research, Rights, Resistance and Reclamation Bob Williams-Findlay MA, Co-founder Disabled People Against Cuts (DPAC)/ Being the Boss 10:20 to 10:35: Presentation 2: “To display or not to display,” and in each case “to whom, how, when, and where”? A Preliminary Reflection on Passing, and Un/Covering, and their Implications on Social Settings Dr. Alex Cockain, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University 10:40 to 10:55: Presentation 3: My mental illness and the importance of space Julian Harrison, Author of A Year in Melancholia 11:00 to 11:15: Presentation 4: Neoliberal ideological bases of academia Dr. Armineh Sooreanian, Independent researcher
11:20 - 11:35	Coffee break
11:35 - 12: 55	Presentation session 2: Disability and Inclusion Each presentation will last 15 mins and will be followed by 5 mins for questions. 11:35 to 11:50: Presentation 5: Knowledge and perceptions of mental health in the Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) community: Are we any more forward than we were 10 years ago? Dr Meredith Wilkinson, Kathleen Nthakomwa-Cassidy and Dr Annemieke van den Tol 11:55 to 12:10: Presentation 6: ‘Have you ever talked to any women with Turner Syndrome?’ Photo-elicitation interviews and other adaptations in research with women with mild cognitive impairment Kriss Fearon, DMU 12.15 to 12:30 Presentation 7: On creating the artwork ‘In conversation’ Sam Sharman-Dunn, Independent artist 12.35 to 12.50 Presentation 8: Education, Health and (Care-Less) Plan's Kelly-Mae Savile, Aston University
13:00 -14:00	Lunch (with time to view the exhibition and films)
14:00 - 15:00	Panel Discussion
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee break

15:30 - 16:30	SUCRAN Workshop in Confucius Centre
16:30	Close of the conference and drinks in the Gallery

There is a quiet space set aside for people who need it, and you are free to leave the room whenever you need to. Please ask one of the organisers for the location during the day.